The world of tea under one roof

There's something for every taste in our range of tea extracts.

The wide world of tea extracts.

Hälssen & Lyon, founded in Hamburg in 1879, is one of the most renowned and successful tea importers in Europe. Our network of customers, partners and suppliers covers the whole world. We deal directly with our primary producers in South America, China, Sri Lanka and India.

Excellent service from a single source.

At Hälssen & Lyon, all-round service on everything to do with tea is a matter of course. Our service includes market information, importation, careful storage, and "just in time" deliveries. Providing regulatory and quality control from production to delivery is part of the service we offer.

Experience and knowledge for generations.

As a tea company with 130 years of experience, we are one of the largest suppliers of speciality and herbal teas with substantial blending operations. Our production facilities are among the most modern in the world, so we are always able to create the best products for constantly changing markets.

Hälssen & Lyon develops tea extracts which have proved their suitability in various applications. Our company has been involved in the tea extract business for more than 50 years since building the first tea extract facility in Sri Lanka. Today, Hälssen & Lyon is one of the leading suppliers of ingredients to the iced tea industry.
